REALLOCATION OF THE COUNTY SALES AND USE TAX

In 2000, during a special election, a majority of the electors of Faulkner County approved a one-half percent (0.5%) sales and use tax within the county to be distributed evenly between the Faulkner County Sheriff's Office and the Faulkner County Road Department.

This referendum changes the indicated use of revenues derived from the county's one-half percent (0.5%) local sales and use tax, the net collections of which remaining after deduction of the administrative charges of the State of Arkansas and required rebates, to be distributed in the following manner:

- Sixty percent (60%) to the Faulkner County Sheriff's Office for Criminal Justice purposes;
- Thirty-five percent (35%) to the Faulkner County Road Department;
- Two-and-a-half percent (2.5%) to fund personnel and operation expenses to be used for animal control within Faulkner County; and
- Two-and-a-half percent (2.5%) to fund operations necessary to continue the 9-1-1 service in Faulkner County.
