Investments in Infrastructure – Broadband

Briefly and clearly state how your project responds to the CoVID-19 crisis:

The CoHO Hope Village Project and its programming respond to the CoVID-19 crises by creating an affordable housing option for individuals and Veterans who were displaced from housing due to loss of employment or sickness. By providing a unique small homes housing option in central Arkansas with associated wrap-around services such as mental health counseling, employment training, and financial literacy, we will address the negative outcomes of homelessness and unemployment in Faulkner County.

CoHO CARES offers case management services to individuals and families seeking rental assistance, utility assistance, and access to health services. With the support of funds from United Way of Central Arkansas, Arkansas Community Foundation of Faulkner County, Delta Dental Foundation of Arkansas, and the Arkansas Department of Human Services, CoHO CARES was created to respond to increased community need as a result of CoVID-19. ARP funds will be used to continue offering case management, rental assistance, and a required budget planning class.

The CoHO Small Market was established in 2020 in response to individuals' and families' lack of access to food due to the CoVID-19 pandemic. CoHO was privileged to receive funding from the Arkansas Hunger Alliance and the National United Way Emergency Food and Shelter Program to support those facing food insecurity through the CoHO Small Market, at no-charge. During 2020, the CoHO Small Market was able to support 312 families with fresh meats, fruits, vegetables, diapers, and feminine products. Nabholz Construction supported the CoHO Small Market and donated a work trailer, which was retrofitted to manage space and have a unique location to offer services. Additionally, CoHO Small Market has functioned to provide a workforce development opportunity for individuals. In 2020, CoHO Small Market was able to employ a young mother from the Oakwood Community who now supervises the market, places orders, and manages inventory. This opportunity has additionally provided volunteer work opportunities for individuals in low-income communities and a partnership with the University of Central Arkansas's BearServe service program.

Does your project have a county-wide impact? If so, describe.

The CoHO Hope Village project seeks to have a county-wide impact by directly supporting displaced Faulkner County residents through housing function as a collaborative resource with other local agencies, and to provide a scalable model of housing which can occur in other localities in Faulkner County.

CoHO CARES has had a county-wide impact since its inception. In the first six months of 2022, CoHO CARES provided $15,837.18 in rental assistance to 11 households and $4,911.68 in utility assistance to 28 households. These households include addresses in Mayflower, Vilonia, and Conway. ARP funds will continue to be used to serve Faulkner County residents impacted by CoVID-19.

CoHO Nutrition has had a county-wide impact serving homeless individuals, families, and children in need of food assistance. In the first six months of 2022, 486 households have participated at the CoHO Small Market to receive food staples, produce, and diapers for children.
